French Eclectic Residence

Category:
Residential

Location:
Huntsville, AL

General Contractor:
*Reeves Custom
Homes, Inc*

This residence, located on a corner lot within a traditional neighborhood development, emphasizes the "French Eclectic" style with informal, asymmetrical massing and mixed French details. The homeowners wished to create a custom house using a historic style that could be distinguishable within the community. The 4,309 square foot house was designed with expandable spaces that open onto several outdoor porches and gardens for expanded living and entertaining.
